Missouri Department of Conservation

Missouri Conservation Hall of Fame

The Missouri Conservation Hall of Fame honors deceased citizen conservationists and former employees of the Department of Conservation and other conservation related government agencies who made substantial and lasting contributions to the fisheries, forestry or wildlife conservation effort of the state.

Eligibility

To be eligible for consideration for recognition, the individual nominated must have been a member of the Missouri conservation community who met at least one of the following criteria:

1. A citizen who performed an outstanding act or whose dedicated service over an extended period resulted in major progress in fisheries, forestry or wildlife conservation in Missouri.
2. An employee of the Department of Conservation or a conservation related government agency who performed an outstanding act or whose dedicated service over an extended period resulted in major progress in fisheries, forestry or wildlife conservation in Missouri.

Current and former Conservation Commissioners and Conservation Directors are recognized in an appropriate manner in the Department headquarters and will not be eligible for this award.

Screening Committee

A screening committee, appointed by the Director of the Department of Conservation, shall be composed of two active Department staff members, two retired Department employees and the President and Executive Director of the Conservation Federation of Missouri. One active Department staff member will serve as chairman. The committee will meet at least semi-annually to consider nominees. Recommendations for inclusion in the Missouri Conservation Hall of Fame will be submitted to the Conservation Commission for its approval. The Conservation Commission is the final authority.

Selection of Candidates

Candidates may be nominated by any person, including committee members. Nominations should include a statement describing the nominee's accomplishments and a brief biography. If confirming documentation is available, it should be provided.

Recognition

Recognition will be by a captioned photograph with a brief listing of major accomplishments to be displayed in Jefferson City, Missouri, either at the Central Office auditorium or at a more suitable Department location, if available.
