

Bellefontaine CA

Area Highlights

Bellefontaine Conservation Area is in north St. Louis County within the city of Bellefontaine Neighbors. The area is 133 acres in size and is situated in the southeast corner of the Highway 367/270 interchange. The area can be accessed from Highway 367, about 1/2-mile south of I-270, via a driveway that is shared with the Missouri Veterans' Home. This tract of land was previously owned by the Missouri Department of Mental Health and was transferred to the Conservation Department in 1995. The Conservation Department was interested in this property because it provided a unique opportunity for urban fishing and conservation-related educational facilities.
